GOOD DAY SIR

MY NAME IS EDD BIEL

Graphic Designer & Web Developer

I'm a 27 year old Graphic Designer & Web Developer from the West Midlands. I have over 5 years commercial experience working on Print & Web based projects, including Ecommerce websites, re-branding, email templates, brochures, flyers, business cards & exhibition stands.

Design is my biggest passion and I relish every opportunity to talk about Typography, Branding & Web Design technologies, and i am constantly seeking to improve my skillset every day.

WORK EXPERIENCE

MARCH 11' - JANUARY 2013'

Wildfire Internet

Graphic Designer & Web Developer

I joined Wildfire Internet as an intern for 3 months and progressed as a Graphic Designer & Web Developer where I worked there for 2 years; even managing my own intern during 2012. I was required to work on Print, Illustration and Web Projects, including creating exhibition stands for usage at shows in London such as the Business Startup Show.

I developed many Ecommerce Websites using HTML5, CSS3 & jQuery, including Email Campaigns using Mailchimp and their own email system. Notable websites include:

- www.janser-uk.co.uk
- www.taxisforlondon.com
- www.skirtech.co.uk

JANUARY 13' - December 13'

layerform

Graphic Designer & Web Developer

In January i went fully freelance and set up Layerform Design Magazine, an online design community providing articles on design, tutorials and exclusive designer interviews. I coded the site using HTML5 & CSS3 and it is fully responsive utilizing media queries and jQuery.

FUN FACT: Layerform.com was my first responsive website where i learnt about designing for mobile devices and retina ready graphics.

JANUARY 14' - APRIL - 14

halfords

Graphic Designer & Web Developer

In January 2014 I started a 3 month contract at Halfords working at their main offices on their new mobile website aswell as working on Graphic Design Projects including Daily Promotional Banners.

ROMAN

Graphic Designer

Currently I am working for Romanoriginals.co.uk as a Graphic Designer, including designing graphics for their website and marketing materials.

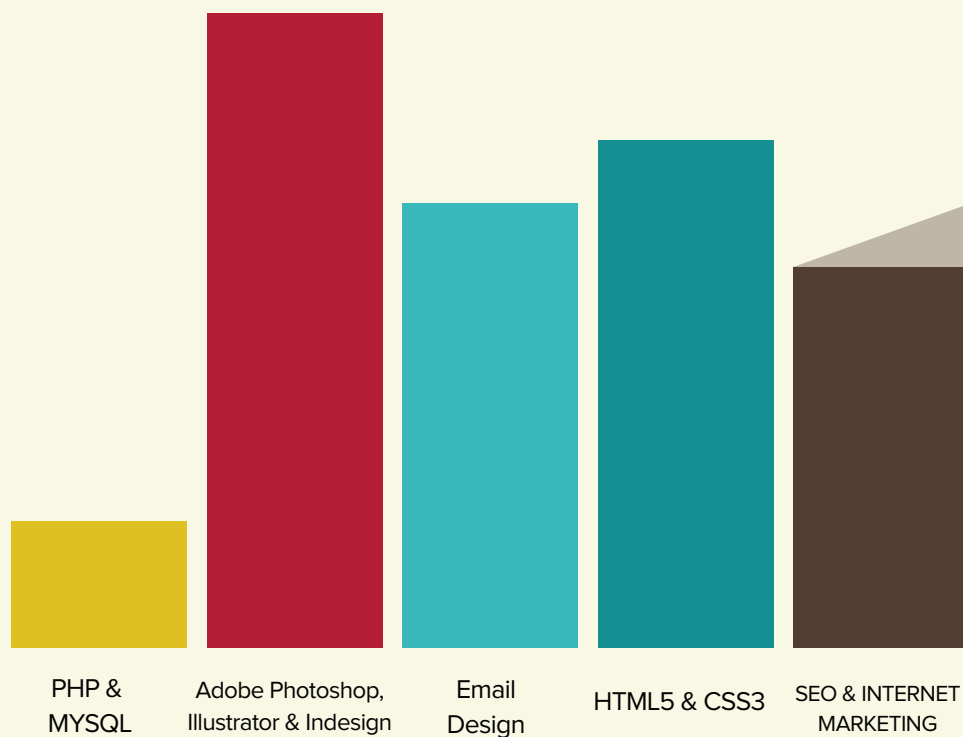

APRIL 14' - February 2016

mFortune.co.uk

Digital & Print Designer

For almost 2 years I have worked at mFortune.co.uk, working on their casino based games, and their web presence, along with the occasional piece of print work. This was a different niche than I was used to, but adapted very well indeed. Since moving on from this position i have successfully freelanced working on projects across the globe.
